PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS To Be Held on Wednesday, May 29, 2002

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Amazon.com, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company" or "Amazon.com"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held at 9:00 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time, on Wednesday, May 29, 2002, in the Metropolitan Ballroom of The Sheraton Seattle Hotel & Towers, 1400 6th Avenue, Seattle, Washington 98101, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The Company's principal offices are located at 1200 12th Avenue South, Suite 1200, Seattle, Washington 98144. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card are first being mailed to the stockholders of the Company on or about April 18, 2002.

Outstanding Securities and Voting Rights

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on April 1, 2002, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. On that date the Company had 375,112,745 shares of Common Stock outstanding. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting.

The six nominees for election to the Board who receive the greatest number of votes cast for the election of Directors by the shares present, in person or by proxy, shall be elected Directors. Holders of Common Stock are not allowed to cumulate their votes in the election of Directors.

A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker nonvotes will be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting. In the election of Directors, abstentions and broker nonvotes have no effect on the outcome. Broker nonvotes occur when a person holding shares in street name, meaning through a bank or brokerage account, does not provide instructions as to how his or her shares should be voted and the bank or broker does not exercise discretion to vote those shares.

Proxy Voting

Shares for which proxy cards are properly executed and returned or that are properly voted via the Internet or by phone will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the directions given or, in the absence of directions, will be voted "FOR" the election of each of the nominees to the Board named herein. It is not expected that any matters other than the election of Directors will be brought before the Annual Meeting. If, however, other matters are properly presented, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their discretion with respect to such matters.

The manner in which your shares may be voted depends on how your shares are held. If you own shares of record, meaning that your shares of Common Stock are represented by certificates or book entries in your name so that you appear as a stockholder on the records of the Company's stock transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC, a proxy card for voting those shares will be included with this Proxy Statement. You may vote those shares by completing, signing and returning the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. Alternatively, by following the instructions on your proxy card, you may vote those shares either via the Internet at www.eproxy.com/amzn or by telephone by calling 1-800-435-6710.

If you own shares in street name you may instead receive a voting instruction form with this Proxy Statement that you may use to instruct your bank or brokerage firm how to vote your shares. As with a proxy card, you may vote your shares by completing, signing and returning the voting instruction form in the envelope provided. Many banks and brokerage firms have arranged for Internet or telephonic voting of shares and provide instructions for using those services on the voting instruction form. If your bank or brokerage firm uses ADP Investor Communication Services, you may vote your shares via the Internet at www.proxyvote.com or by calling the telephone number on your voting instruction form.

Attendance and Voting at the Annual Meeting

If you own Common Stock of record, you may attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person, regardless of whether you have previously voted by proxy card, via the Internet or by telephone. If you own Common Stock in street name, you may attend the Annual Meeting but in order to vote your shares at the meeting you must obtain a "legal proxy" from the bank or brokerage firm that holds your shares. You should contact your bank or brokerage account representative to learn how to obtain a legal proxy. We encourage you to vote your shares in advance of the Annual Meeting by one of the methods described above, even if you plan on attending the Annual Meeting. You may change or revoke your vote at the Annual Meeting in the manner described below even if you have already voted.

Revocation

If you own Common Stock of record you may revoke a previously granted proxy at any time before it is voted by delivering to the Secretary of the Company a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy card bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Any stockholder owning Common Stock in street name may change or revoke previously given voting instructions by contacting the bank or brokerage firm holding the shares or by obtaining a legal proxy from such bank or brokerage firm and voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with the Company's Bylaws, the Board has fixed the number of Directors constituting the Board at six. The Nominating Committee of the Board has recommended and the Board has proposed that the following six nominees be elected at the Annual Meeting, each of whom will hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified: Jeffrey P. Bezos, Tom A. Alberg, Scott D. Cook, L. John Doerr, Mark S. Hansen and Patricia Q. Stonesifer. It is intended that each properly executed proxy will be voted "FOR" the election of these nominees, unless the stockholder indicates on the proxy that votes are to be withheld as to one or more nominees. Although the Board anticipates that the six nominees will be available to serve as Directors of the Company, if any of them should be unwilling or unable to serve, it is intended that the proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee or nominees as may be designated by the Board.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote "FOR" each nominee.

- (1) Under the terms of the Company's offer to exchange options in the first quarter of 2001, the exercise price of the new options granted in exchange for the cancellation of the exchanged options was set at $13.375 per share, which was the lowest closing price of the Common Stock during the period between January 1, 2001, and February 14, 2001, as reported on the Nasdaq National Market. All other options were granted at the fair market value on their respective dates of grant. In each case, fair market value is based on the average of the high and low per share sales prices for the Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market on the date of grant.
- (2) The dollar amounts under these columns are the result of calculations based on the market price on the date of grant at an assumed annual rate of appreciation over the maximum term of the option of 0%, 5% and 10% as required by applicable regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and, therefore, are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the Common Stock price. Assumes all options are exercised at the end of their respective terms. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises depend on the future performance of the Common Stock and overall market conditions, as well as the optionee's continued service to the Company through the vesting period.
- (3) This option vests and becomes exercisable at the rate of 25% on August 14, 2001, and 4.167% on the 14th day of each month thereafter until fully vested on February 14, 2003, subject to the optionee's continued employment with the Company.
- (4) This option vests and becomes exercisable at the rate of 4.08% on February 14, 2002, 4.08% on February 14, 2003, and an additional 4.592% per quarter thereafter until fully vested on February 14, 2008, subject to the optionee's continued employment with the Company.
- (5) This option vests and becomes exercisable at the rate of 5% on May 14, 2003, and an additional 5% per quarter thereafter until fully vested on February 14, 2008, subject to the optionee's continued employment with the Company.

Summary of Option Exchange

In the first quarter of 2001, the Company offered an exchange of employee stock options to holders of certain outstanding options, including some of the Company's executive officers, that had an exercise price of more than $23.00 per share. All eligible executive officers accepted the offer to exchange options. Under the offer to exchange options, employees could exchange eligible options on an all-or-nothing basis for a new option on a less than one-for-one basis. Employees accepting the exchange offer were also required to surrender for cancellation all options subject to a special grant made in July 2000 to employees hired on or before July 24, 2000, who held options with an exercise price (adjusted for stock splits) greater than $29.75 per share. Most of these special options, including those granted to executive officers, had an exercise price of $30.875 per share. The new options granted in the exchange have an exercise price of $13.375 per share and vest over a two-year period commencing on February 14, 2001, with an initial 25% vesting on August 14, 2001, followed by monthly vesting of 4.167% thereafter, subject to the optionee's continued employment with the Company. The new options expire on September 30, 2003. The offer to exchange options was not offered to two executive officers who had been employees of the Company for at least two years. The following table sets forth information concerning the offer to exchange options with respect to executive officers of the Company. The Company has not previously repriced options held by its executive officers.

Compensation and Management Development Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Company offers compensation packages designed to attract and retain outstanding employees and to encourage and reward the achievement of corporate goals. Through broad-based employee ownership of Common Stock, the Company seeks to align employee financial interests with long-term stockholder value.

Executive officers receive total compensation packages in line with their responsibilities and expertise. The Company believes that the majority of an executive's compensation should be closely tied to overall Company performance. Accordingly, base salaries for executive officers in most cases are relatively low, but are accompanied by significant stock option grants and, in certain cases, cash bonuses.

Base Salaries. Salaries for the Company's executive officers are based on the executive's contribution to Company performance, level of responsibility, experience and breadth of knowledge. Base salaries for executive officers generally are designed to be significantly less than those paid by competitors in the electronic commerce and Internet industries. These lower base salaries are combined with large stock option grants, so that the major portion of the executive's pay is tied to Company performance, and with cash bonuses. In 2001, some executive officers received salary increases from 2000, but base salaries remain significantly below market rates.

Stock-Based Compensation. The Company seeks to align the long-term interests of its executive officers with those of its stockholders. As a result, each executive officer receives a significant stock option grant when he or she joins the Company or is promoted to executive officer. Grant sizes are determined based on various subjective factors, primarily related to the individual's anticipated contributions to the Company's success. The Company also has granted additional stock options to executive officers on a periodic basis, based on various subjective factors primarily related to the Compensation and Management Development Committee's assessment of each officer's anticipated contributions to the Company's success.

In 2001, executive officers received one-time supplemental grants of options, generally with delayed vesting over seven or more years. These grants were designed primarily to provide continued long-term equity compensation after the executive's new hire option grants or, as described below, exchange option grants become largely vested. Each executive officer also received a one-time grant of restricted stock. The restricted stock is subject to forfeiture in the event of termination of employment and these restrictions lapse over a five-year period.

2001 Option Exchange Program. In the first quarter of 2001, the Company offered an exchange of employee stock options to holders of certain outstanding options, including executive officers, that had an exercise price of more than $23.00 per share. All eligible executive officers accepted the offer to exchange options. Under the offer to exchange options, employees could exchange eligible options on an all-or-nothing basis for a new option on a less than one-for-one basis. Employees accepting the exchange offer were also required to surrender for cancellation all options subject to a special grant made in July 2000 to employees hired on or before July 24, 2000 who held options with an exercise price (adjusted for stock splits) greater than $29.75. The special options had been granted to most employees, including the eligible executive officers, at an exercise price of $30.875 per share. The new options have an exercise price of $13.375 and vest over a two year period commencing on February 14, 2001, with an initial 25% vesting on August 14, 2001, followed by monthly vesting of 4.167% thereafter. The new options terminate on September 30, 2003. The offer to exchange options was not offered to two executive officers who had been employees of the Company for at least two years.

The Compensation and Management Development Committee approved the exchange offer because it is philosophically committed to the concept of employees as owners, including for its executive officers. In light of the stock market volatility at that time, especially for Internet stocks, the Committee felt it appropriate to offer the option exchange program. Together with the Company's regular annual grant program, the option exchange program helps advance the Committee's ownership philosophy.

Bonus Compensation. In the past, the Company offered cash bonuses to encourage prospective candidates to join the Company as executive officers, to compensate officers for assuming additional responsibilities in connection with their promotions to executive officer, and to align compensation more closely with peer groups in similar industries. In 2001, the Company entered into one bonus agreement in connection with the promotion of an executive officer and also made bonus payments under pre-existing contractual commitments. The Company intends to make additional cash bonuses to executive officers from time to time based on performance and potential.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. Mr. Bezos received $81,840 in cash compensation from the Company during 2001. Mr. Bezos' compensation was considerably less than may have been paid to an individual with similar responsibilities in a similar industry. Due to Mr. Bezos' substantial ownership in the Company (approximately 30%), Mr. Bezos requested not to receive additional compensation in 2001.

Ongoing Review. The Compensation and Management Development Committee will evaluate the Company's compensation policies on an ongoing basis to determine whether they enable the Company to attract, retain and motivate key personnel. To meet these objectives, the Company may from time to time increase salaries, award additional stock options or provide other short- and long-term incentive compensation to executive officers, including Mr. Bezos.

Section 162(m). Compensation payments in excess of $1 million to the Chief Executive Officer or the other four most highly compensated executive officers are subject to a limitation on deductibility for the Company under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Certain performance-based compensation is not subject to the limitation on deductibility. The Compensation and Management Development Committee does not expect cash compensation in 2002 to its Chief Executive Officer to be in excess of $1 million. The Committee expects that cash compensation in 2002 to some of its executive officers may be in excess of $1 million and not qualify as performance-based. The Company intends to maintain qualification of its 1997 Stock Incentive Plan for the performance-based exception to the $1 million limitation on deductibility of compensation payments.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS, TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE-OF-CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

Option Plans

1997 Stock Incentive Plan and 1999 Nonofficer Employee Stock Option Plan. In the event of (i) the merger or consolidation of the Company in which it is not the surviving corporation pursuant to which shares of Common Stock are converted into cash, securities or other property (other than a merger in which holders of Common Stock immediately before the merger have the same proportionate ownership of the capital stock of the surviving corporation immediately after the merger), (ii) the sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of all or substantially all of the Company's assets (other than a transfer to a majority-owned subsidiary), or (iii) the approval by the holders of Common Stock of any plan or proposal for the Company's liquidation or dissolution (each a "Corporate Transaction"), the Compensation and Management Development Committee will determine whether provisions will be made in connection with the Corporate Transaction for the assumption of the options and other awards, including restricted stock, under the Company's 1997 Stock Incentive Plan and 1999 Nonofficer Employee Stock Option Plan or the substitution of appropriate new options or awards covering the stock of the successor corporation or an affiliate of the successor corporation. If the Compensation and Management Development Committee determines that no such assumption or substitution will be made, each outstanding option and award under the 1997 Stock Incentive Plan and the 1999 Nonofficer Employee Stock Option Plan will automatically accelerate so that it will become 100% vested and exercisable immediately before the Corporate Transaction, except that acceleration will not occur if, in the opinion of the Company's accountants, it would render unavailable "pooling of interests" accounting for a Corporate Transaction that otherwise would qualify for that accounting treatment.

Employment Arrangements

Mark J. Britto. In conjunction with Mr. Britto's promotion in July 2000 to Senior Vice President, Mr. Britto's promotion letter provides for an initial annual salary of $150,000. Mr. Britto's employment is for no specified length of time. Mr. Britto was also granted a cash promotion bonus in the amount of $2,500,000, payable in equal monthly installments over the 30-month period beginning with his paycheck for July 2000. In the event Mr. Britto's employment is terminated for any reason prior to payment of the entire bonus, he will forfeit all subsequent installments of this bonus. Mr. Britto was also granted a special bonus in the amount of $500,000 in January 2000, which was paid in full in January 2001. Payment of this bonus was subject to Mr. Britto maintaining continuous full-time employment with the Company from January 3, 2000, through December 31, 2000. Mr. Britto received shares of Common Stock subject to a restricted stock purchase agreement as part of the Company's acquisition of Accept.com Financial Services Corporation in 1999. These shares are subject to repurchase by the Company at the original price paid for such shares, which lapses in accordance with a vesting schedule over a four-year period ending October 13, 2002. In the event of a consolidation or merger of the Company with another company which results in the stockholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction holding 50% or less of the voting equity securities of the surviving company immediately following such transaction, vesting of the remaining unvested shares subject to the restricted stock purchase agreement will accelerate by 25%. If Mr. Britto's employment with the Company terminates, vesting ceases and the Company has the option to repurchase the remaining unvested shares.

Warren C. Jenson. Mr. Jenson's employment offer letter provides for an initial annual salary of $175,000. Mr. Jenson's employment is for no specified length of time. In addition to Mr. Jenson's base salary, and subject to certain conditions noted below, he is entitled to receive a $7,400,000 signing bonus payable in five annual installments. The first installment of $2,150,000 was paid in 1999 with Mr. Jenson's first regular paycheck; the second installment of $1,250,000 was paid with his first paycheck following September 7, 2000; and the third installment of $1,250,000 was paid with his paycheck following September 7, 2001. The fourth installment of $1,250,000 is payable with Mr. Jenson's paycheck following September 7, 2002, and the fifth installment of $1,500,000 is payable with his paycheck following September 7, 2003. In the event Mr. Jenson's employment is terminated for any reason during the first five years, he must reimburse the Company for that year's installment of the signing bonus on a pro-rated monthly basis, and will forfeit all subsequent installments. Mr. Jenson has announced his intention to resign his position with the Company later in 2002, and, upon his departure, he will forfeit the unpaid installments of the signing bonus and be obligated to reimburse the Company for any unearned portion of the third installment of the signing bonus paid in 2001. As additional consideration for entering into a confidentiality, noncompetition and invention assignment agreement with the Company, the Company paid Mr. Jenson $100,000 at the time of his first regular paycheck, in accordance with his employment offer letter. The Company also granted Mr. Jenson an option to purchase 2,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to his employment offer letter. This option and all other eligible options held by Mr. Jenson were exchanged for an option to purchase 346,667 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.375 per share with a term expiring September 30, 2003, pursuant to an option exchange offer made by the Company on January 31, 2001. See "Executive Compensation—Summary of Option Exchange." In May 2000, Mr. Jenson was granted a special cash bonus in the amount of $1,000,000, payable in equal monthly installments over a one-year period beginning with his paycheck for May 2000. This bonus has been paid in full.

Diego Piacentini. Mr. Piacentini's employment offer letter provides for an initial annual salary of $175,000. Mr. Piacentini's employment is for no specified length of time. In addition to Mr. Piacentini's base salary he is entitled to receive a $1,900,000 signing bonus payable in two installments. The first installment of $1,000,000 was paid in February 2000 and the second installment of $900,000 was paid with his first paycheck following February 21, 2001. Mr. Piacentini's signing bonus is no longer subject to reimbursement upon termination of his employment. As additional consideration for entering into a confidentiality, noncompetition and invention assignment agreement with the Company, the Company paid Mr. Piacentini $400,000 in February 2000, in accordance with his employment offer letter. The Company also granted Mr. Piacentini an option to purchase 600,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to his employment offer letter. This option and all other eligible options held by Mr. Piacentini were exchanged for an option to purchase 240,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.375 per share with a term expiring September 30, 2003, pursuant to an option exchange offer made by the Company on January 31, 2001. Jeffrey A. Wilke. Mr. Wilke's employment offer letter provides for an initial annual salary of $120,000. Mr. Wilke's employment is for no specified length of time. In addition to Mr. Wilke's base salary, and subject to certain conditions noted below, he is entitled to receive a $2,000,000 signing bonus payable in four annual installments. The first installment of $800,000 was paid in 1999 with Mr. Wilke's first regular paycheck; the second installment of $400,000 was paid with his first paycheck following September 7, 2000; the third installment of $200,000 was paid with his paycheck following September 7, 2001; and the fourth installment of $600,000 is payable with his paycheck following September 7, 2002. In the event Mr. Wilke's employment is terminated voluntarily or for cause during the first four years, he must reimburse the Company for that year's installment of the signing bonus on a pro-rated monthly basis, and will forfeit all subsequent installments. The Company also granted Mr. Wilke options to purchase a total of 1,000,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to his employment offer letter. These options and all other eligible options held by Mr. Wilke were exchanged for an option to purchase 240,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.375 per share with a term expiring September 30, 2003, pursuant to an option exchange offer made by the Company on January 31, 2001. ## PROPOSALS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Proposals of stockholders to be considered for inclusion in the Proxy Statement and proxy card for the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 must be received by the Secretary of the Company on or before December 19, 2002. The submission of a stockholder proposal does not guarantee that it will be included in the Company's Proxy Statement.

In addition, the Company's Bylaws include advance notice provisions that require stockholders desiring to bring nominations or other business before an annual stockholders meeting to do so in accordance with the terms of the advance notice provisions regardless of whether the stockholder seeks to include such matters in the Company's Proxy Statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8. These advance notice provisions require that, among other things, stockholders give timely written notice to the Secretary of the Company regarding such nominations or other business and otherwise satisfy the requirements set forth in the Bylaws. To be timely, a notice must be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not more than 90 days but not less than 60 days prior to May 29, 2003, which is the first anniversary of the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Accordingly, a stockholder who intends to present nominations or a proposal at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders without inclusion of the proposal in the Company's proxy materials must provide written notice of the nominations or other business they wish to propose to the Secretary no earlier than February 28, 2003, and no later than March 30, 2003. However, in the event the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is to be held on a date that is more than 30 days before or more than 60 days after May 29, 2003, then such notice must be received not earlier than the 90th day and not later than the 60th day prior to the date of the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (or, if the Company gives less than 60 days' notice of such meeting, not later than the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of such annual meeting was mailed or public disclosure thereof was made).

The Company reserves the right to reject, rule out of order, or take other appropriate action with respect to any proposal that does not comply with these and other applicable requirements.

HOUSEHOLDING

If you and others who share your mailing address own Common Stock in street name, meaning through bank or brokerage accounts, you may have received a notice that your household will receive only one annual report and proxy statement from each company whose stock is held in such accounts. This practice, known as "householding," is designed to reduce the volume of duplicate information and reduce printing and postage costs. Unless you responded that you did not want to participate in householding, you were deemed to have consented to it, and a single copy of this Proxy Statement and the 2001 Annual Report have been sent to your address. Each stockholder will continue to receive a separate voting instruction form.

If you would like to receive an individual copy of the 2001 Annual Report or this Proxy Statement, we will send a copy to you upon request by mail to Investor Relations, Amazon.com, Inc., P.O. Box 81226, Seattle, Washington 98108-1226, by calling 1-800-426-6825 or by email to ir@amazon.com.

If you would like to revoke your consent to householding and in the future receive your own set of proxy materials or if your household is currently receiving multiple copies of the proxy materials and you would like in the future to receive only a single set of proxy materials at your address, please contact Householding Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, NY 11717 and include your name, the name of your brokerage firm or bank and your account number. The revocation of a consent to householding will be effective 30 days following its receipt. You may also have an opportunity to opt in or opt out of householding by following the instructions on your voting instruction form or by contacting your bank or broker.

Audit Committee Charter

Organization

This charter governs the operations of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Amazon.com. The Committee shall review and reassess the charter at least annually and recommend any appropriate changes to the Board of Directors. The Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and shall comprise at least three directors, each of whom meet NASD requirements with respect to independence and financial literacy. The Audit Committee may create subcommittees which shall report to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall meet as often as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in its judgment, generally at least four times each year, either in person or telephonically.

Statement of Policy

The Audit Committee shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, the investment community, and others relating to the Company's financial statements and financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs as established by management and the board. In so doing, the committee shall maintain free and open communication between the committee, the independent auditors and management of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company and the power to retain outside counsel, or other experts for this purpose.

Responsibilities and Processes

The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of their activities to the Board. Management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The committee in carrying out its responsibilities believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances.

The following shall be the principal recurring processes of the Audit Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may supplement them as appropriate.

- The committee shall have a clear understanding with management and the independent auditors that the independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the board and the audit committee, as representatives of the Company's shareholders. The committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to evaluate and annually recommend the selection, retention and, where appropriate, the replacement of the independent auditors. The committee shall review and approve the performance by the independent auditors of any non-audit-related service if the fees for such service are projected to exceed 15% of the most recently completed fiscal year's combined audit fees and audit-related service fees. The committee shall review and discuss with the auditors their independence from management and the Company and the matters included in the written disclosures required by professional independence standards applicable to the independent auditors. Annually, the committee shall review and assess whether the outside auditor's performance of non-audit services is compatible with the auditor's independence. In addition, the audit committee shall review any candidate for the senior internal auditing executive position prior to his or her appointment by the Company.

- The committee shall review and discuss with the independent auditors and with the head of the Company's internal audit department the overall scope and plans for the audits. Also, the committee shall discuss with management, the internal audit department and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk, and legal and ethical compliance programs. Further, the committee shall meet separately with the independent auditors and with the head of the internal audit department, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their respective audit procedures.
- The committee shall review and discuss the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards. The chair of the committee may represent the entire committee for the purposes of this review.
- The committee shall review and discuss with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (or the annual report to shareholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, the basis and appropriateness of any change in significant accounting policies and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the committee shall review and discuss the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.
- The committee shall review and discuss with management and the independent auditors any material financial or non-financial arrangements of the Company which do not appear on the financial statements of the Company and any transactions or courses of dealing with parties related to the Company which transactions are significant in size or involve terms or other aspects that differ from those that would likely be negotiated with independent parties, in each case where such arrangements or transactions are relevant to an understanding of the Company's financial statements.
